He also contends that the co-accused have already been acquitted in the trial by the judgment of Additional Sessions Judge, Gurdaspur dated 29.04.2016 (Annexure P-3). Learned counsel further contends that the petitioner is willing to face trial and, therefore, he wants to surrender before the trial Court and in view of the aforementioned facts and circumstances, especially when the petitioner was a juvenile at the time of the occurrence, he may be protected from arrest.

Heard.

The petitioner is stated to be a juvenile at the time of the commission of the offence. Only injury on the ankle of the complainant is attributed to the petitioner.

Therefore, the petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to surrender before the trial Court and in the event of his doing so, he shall be granted bail by the trial Court to its satisfaction.

However, nothing whatsoever observed hereinbefore, shall be construed to an expression on the merits of the case.
