LISA GILL, J.

The petitioners, who are the father-in-law and the mother-in-law of the deceased in this case, seek concession of anticipatory bail in FIR No. 42 dated 30.03.2016 registered under Section 306 IPC at Police Station Mehatpur, District Jalandhar.

It is submitted that vague and general allegations have been levelled against the petitioners. There is nothing on record to suggest the commission of offence punishable under Section 306 IPC qua them. During investigation, the petitioners were found innocent. They were summoned by the learned trial Court vide order dated 16.01.2017 on an application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. Pursuant to order dated 01.03.2017 passed by this Court, the petitioners have appeared before the learned trial Court. They are ready and willing to face trial. It is submitted that the co-accused i.e. the husband of the deceased is in custody.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Mandeep Singh, verifies that the petitioners have indeed appeared before the learned trial Court pursuant to interim order passed by this Court. There are no allegations on behalf of the State that the petitioners are likely to abscond or that they are likely to dissuade the witnesses from deposing true facts in the Court, if released on bail.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances noted above but without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, it is considered just and expedient to allow this petition. Consequently, interim bail granted to the petitioners by the learned trial Court be made absolute subject to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court. The petitioners shall abide by provisions stipulated under Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.
