CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present : Ms. Arti Kaur, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. D.S. Virk, DAG Punjab.

Mr. Ruhani Chadha, Advocate,
for Mr. Rahul Bhargava, Advocate, for respondent No.2-complainant.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.69 dated 07.10.2015 registered under Sections 406 and 420 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Mukandpur, District SBS Nagar and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise (Annuxure P-2).

Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel for the complainant state that parties have arrived at a compromise. This Court had made an order dated March 03, 2017 directing the trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate to record the statements in view of the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties and verify that whether the same is genuine or not. Now, there is a report received from the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,

Shaheed Bhagat Singh Nagar showing that the statements of the parties have been recorded and the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties is genuine and without any pressure, coercion of undue influence.

Looking to the nature of offences registered in the FIR, I think, parties should be allowed to compound/compromise the offences in order to live in peace and harmony, however, subject to the payment of non-refundable costs by the petitioner in the sum of ₹25,000/- with the office of Senior Superintendent of Police, SBS Nagar within a period of 15 days from today, which shall be forfeited to the State government.

In that view of the matter, FIR No.69 dated 07.10.2015 registered under Sections 406 and 420 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Mukandpur, District SBS Nagar is quashed by way of compounding/compromise along with all consequential proceedings arising there from.

In case of failure of payment of costs as aforesaid, the FIR in question shall stand automatically revived and the trial will continue against the petitioner.

Disposed of.
