CRM No.19178 of 2017

Heard.

Application is allowed and Annexures A-1 to A-2 are taken on record.

CRR No.1647 of 2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

Revision petition was admitted by this Court and the sentence awarded to the petitioners was also suspended. The trial Court had acquitted the petitioners for the offences for which they were charged. In appeal, the petitioners were convicted and sentenced by the lower Appellate Court vide judgment and order dated 21.12.2015/31.03.2016. The present revision petition was thereafter, filed in this Court.

During the pendency of the present revision petition, parties have arrived at compromise and the compromise deed is accordingly, placed on record along with the application, i.e. CRM No.19178 of 2017.

Mr. S.S. Salar, Advocate appears for respondent No.2-complainant and submits that indeed, the compromise between the parties has been arrived and therefore, he has no objection for compounding as the accused persons and the complainant want to live in peace and harmony. In that view of the matter, looking to the fact that the parties have compromised, there is no point in continuing with the present revision petition. However, the petitioners will have to pay compensatory costs in the sum of ₹2,000/- each (total ₹8,000/-) to the State of Punjab by depositing the same in the Court of JMIC, Dhuri which shall be transferred to the accounts of State of Punjab.

In that view of the matter, CRR No.1647 of 2016 is disposed of and by way of compounding/compromise, the impugned judgment/order dated 21.12.2015/31.03.2016 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Sangrur is quashed and set aside. Compensatory costs of ₹2,000/- each (total ₹8,000/-) shall be deposited within a period of 8 weeks with the trial Magistrate which shall be transferred to the accounts of State of Punjab.
