State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present : Mr. Ankur Bansal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Rajni Gupta, Addl. A.G. Punjab.

Mr. Manish Verma, Advocate,
for the complainant.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

In FIR No.88 dated 13.06.2009 registered under Sections 323/452/427/382/148 and 149 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Division No.5, District Jalandhar the petitioner is being prosecuted.

Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned counsel for the complainant state that the compromise has been arrived at between the parties. This Court had directed the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate to record the statements vide order dated March 15, 2017 in view of the compromise effected between the parties and verify that whether the same is genuine or not. Now, there is a report received from the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Jalandhar showing that the statements of the parties have been recorded and compromise that has been arrived at between the parties is genuine and without any pressure, coercion or undue influence.

Looking to the nature of the offences registered in the FIR, I think, parties should be allowed to compound/compromise the offences in order to live in peace and harmony.

In that view of the matter, FIR No.88 dated 13.06.2009 registered under Sections 323/452/427/382/148 and 149 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Division No.5, District Jalandhar is quashed by way of compounding/compromise along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

In view of the quashing of FIR in question, petition for grant of anticipatory bail has rendered infructuous as the FIR in question ceases to exist.
