CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. Rahul Vats, Advocate, for the petitioner in CRR(F)-299-2015.
and respondent in CRR(F)-128-2016.

Mr. N.S. Shekhawat, Advocate, for the petitioners in CRR(F)-128-2016
and respondents in CRR(F)-299-2015.

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J. (ORAL)

The above noticed two cross criminal revision petitions have been filed laying challenge to the common impugned order dated 07.10.2015, passed by learned District Judge, Family Court, Gurgaon, in petition under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Vide order dated 25.07.2016, passed in CRR(F)-299-2015, the parties were referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court. The order reads thus:-

“In compliance of previous order dated 11.07.2016, the petitioner has handed over a sum of ₹50,000/- to the complainant to show his bona-fide for final settlement which has been accepted by the complainant.

Both the parties state that they wanted to part ways and amicable settlement towards permanent alimony can be worked out in Mediation Centre.

Taking into consideration the above fact, the parties are directed to appear before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court on 22.08.2016.

Adjourned to 20.12.2016.”

Learned counsel for the parties state that the parties have entered into settlement/agreement dated 21.07.2017 and amicably settled the dispute. Learned counsel assure that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the agreement so reached. It is further prayed that the present revision petitions shall be disposed of in terms of settlement/agreement dated 21.07.2017.

In view of the above, the instant revision petitions are disposed of in terms of the settlement/agreement dated 21.07.2017, which shall form part of this order. In case of any violation of terms and conditions of the settlement/agreement, the aggrieved party shall have the right to revive the petition within three months thereafter.
