TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J.

The instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 3(1)(a) and (d) of the Punjab Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1962 seeking release on emergency parole.

Petitioner, who is a lady stands convicted in FIR No.21 dated 28.05.1996 registered at Police Station Vigilance Bureau, Ferozepur for offence under Section 13(1)(d) read with Section 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and Sections 465/471/420/409 IPC.

Emergency parole was sought on the ground that her husband is seriously ill and she has to take care of him.

Upon notice having been issued in the instant petition, a reply of the Superintendent, Central Jail, Faridkot has been filed. Perusal of the same would reveal that the petitioner was granted six weeks parole from 17.08.2016 to 29.09.2016 and has thereafter been readmitted in jail on 29.09.2016.

Counsel appearing for the petitioner makes a statement that in fact husband of the petitioner has since expired.

Nothing, accordingly, survives in the petition and the same is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
