AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (Oral):

Perusal of the prayer made in the writ petition would show that parole for four weeks was sought for enabling the petitioner to get her children admitted in school.

As per the reply given by the respondents, the present petition has been rendered infructuous as the time for admission of the students has since expired. Further, brother of the writ petitioner is capable to admit the children. Perusal of the file would show that none has been appearing on behalf of the petitioner for the last four hearings i.e. 16.12.2016, 25.01.2017, 23.03.2017 and 28.04.2017. It appears that the petitioner is not interested in pursuing the present petition any further.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
