JITENDRA CHAUHAN.J.(ORAL)

By filing this criminal writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner seeks setting aside of the order dated 25.07.2016, Annexure P-3 whereby application for grant of four weeks parole to the petitioner has been declined.

As per the reply, the petitioner is a convict in three FIRs mentioned in paragraph No.3 of the reply. Though, as per the reply prepared, there is apprehension that the petitioner may abscond or take resort to violence against the opposite party, however, the learned State counsel fairly admits that the petitioner was released on parole twice and he did not misuse the concession of parole and surrendered as per the orders.

In view of above, three weeks parole is allowed to the petitioner on his furnishing bonds to the satisfaction of Deputy Superintendent, District Jail, Jhajjar. The dates of release and surrender shall be notified by the releasing authority.
