CRR No. 377 of 2017

The short relief sought by learned counsel for the petitioner is that the first Appellate Court while disposing of the appeals, has passed orders that in the event of compensation amount of ₹4 lakh being not paid within a period of two months from the date of judgment, the petitioner shall undergo rigorous imprisonment for six months. He submits that the entire amount was paid by the petitioner to the respondent on 17.02.2017 i.e. after the expiry of period of two months, as such, the default clause may be modified.

Learned counsel for the respondent endorses the submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner that the matter has been amicably settled and entire due amount has been paid by the petitioner. He has no objection if the judgment of the first Appellate Court imposing the condition of payment of compensation within two months is modified.

In view of submission of learned counsel for the parties, this petition is disposed of with modification of the judgment passed by the first Appellate Court that petitioner shall not be taken into custody or made to undergo rigorous imprisonment for six months due to non-payment of compensation amount within a period of two months from the date of passing of judgment by first Appellate Court.

Disposed of accordingly.
