Ms. Sudeepti Sharma, Additional Advocate General, Punjab.

JASPAL SINGH, J (ORAL)

Through instant petition preferred under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to consider her claim for grant of revised pensionary benefits by counting the service rendered by her from 01.04.1970 to 13.01.1978 in Guru Nanak High School, Dhanansu(Ludhiana) against a regular sanctioned aided post of S.S. Mistress, before the school was taken over by the Punjab Govt., as qualifying service for pension and other benefits, which has been counted as qualifying service for pensionary benefits.

2. At the very outset of the arguments, it has been submitted by learned State counsel that the benefits sought through instant petition have already been granted to the similarly situated officials by this Court vide judgment passed in CWP No. 14238 of 1991, titled as “Sukhdev Singh and others v. State of Punjab and others” decided on 10.03.2010, (Annexure P-4).

3. The instant petition is also stands disposed of in terms of judgment (Annexure P-4) referred to above. The respondents are directed to release/disburse the benefits to the petitioner within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. In case, the petitioner still feels aggrieved against the order passed by the respondents, she shall be at liberty to approach this Court.
