Heard.

Parole of the petitioner has been declined by the State on the ground that the petitioner is a drug addict and habitual of selling intoxicant. If he is released on parole, he will disturb the peace and harmony in the village.

Petitioner seeks six weeks parole to attend the marriage of his niece (brother's daughter).

The brother of the petitioner is there to make arrangements of the marriage. Thus, there is no ground to release the petitioner on parole.

As such, the present petition is dismissed.
