JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed for grant of premature release on usual terms and conditions as per Government Policy dated 08.08.2000 (Annexure P-1).

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the petitioner-Titri has already undergone actual sentence of nineteen years, two months and twenty six days and therefore, would be entitled for grant of premature release as per Government Policy dated 08.08.2000 (Annexure P-1).

After notice of motion, reply has been filed by way of affidavit of Sh. Jagjit Singh, Inspector General of Prisons, Haryana. As per reply filed, the case of the petitioner was considered for premature release but while noting that his case was covered under para 2(a)(xii) & (xiv) (convicts who cannot for some definite reasons be prematurely released without danger to public safety) of the policy dated 08.08.2000, request has been declined for premature release.

In view of the reply filed and the decision taken declining the release as sought, the petitioner herein seeks to withdraw the instant petition seeking liberty to challenge the decision taken thereto.

In view of the request so made, petitioner herein is permitted to withdraw the instant petition with liberty to challenge the decision taken by the government.

Dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty aforesaid.
