S.J.VAZIFDAR, Chief Justice :

On 01.01.2014, the petitioners were allotted shop/ plot No.100 in the New Vegetable Market, Hisar. The respondents vide letter dated 13.01.2014 offered possession of the said plot to the petitioners. However, the respondents were apparently unable to hand over possession thereof on account of various difficulties.

Mr.Lokesh Sinhal, Ld. Counsel appearing for the respondents today tendered a letter dated 29.04.2017 offering the allotment of an alternative shop/ plot to the petitioners bearing shop/ plot No.215, on the same terms and conditions including as to price. The petitioners accept the same.

The petition is, therefore, disposed of by directing the respondents to hand over possession of the said shop/ plot No.215 to the petitioners by 30.11.2017. The respondents shall communicate to the petitioners in writing as and when the petitioners agree to take possession. The petitioners are at liberty to approach the respondents for compensation by way of interest or otherwise for the delay in handing over the shop/ plot. We do not express any views on the maintainability of any such request/application.
