versus

State of Haryana and others

---Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Rekha Mittal

Present: Mrs. Sarla Chaudhary, Advocate for the petitioner

Rekha Mittal, J.

The petitioner has invoked Article 226 of the Constitution of India for grant of emergency parole in order to enable the petitioner to attend marriage of his real sister fixed for 8.5.2017.

It is submitted that the petitioner was convicted and sentenced in respect of FIR No. 134 dated 13.6.2010 for offence under Sections 363, 366A, 376(2)G and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station, Sadar Ballabgarh. Father of the petitioner submitted an application dated 17.4.2017 to the Superintendent, District Jail, Faridabad (Haryana) for release of the petitioner to attend marriage of his real sister but no decision on the application has been taken till date. She confines her prayer for issuance of direction to the Superintendent, District Jail, Faridabad to dispose of the application expeditiously.

Without examining merits of the controversy, in view of limited prayer made by counsel for the petitioner, petition is disposed of with a direction to the Superintendent, District Jail, Faridabad to consider and decide the application filed by Bittu, father of the petitioner for release of the convict within a period of one day from receipt of certified copy of the order.

Disposed of.
