KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

Heard.

Reply filed on behalf of respondent Nos.1, 2, 4 and 5 shows that after the death of the husband of the petitioner in the year 2000, the petitioner contracted second marriage leaving the custody of her son Jaskaranpreet Singh to his grandparents, who subsequently obtained guardianship rights from the Guardian Judge, Amritsar in the year 2005. Thereafter, Joginder Kaur @ Jagir Kaur gave Jaskaranpreet Singh in adoption to her brother Kulwant Singh, vide registered adoption deed dated 04.05.2007.

It also comes out that now said Jaskarnpreet Singh along with his foster parents is settled in California (U.S.A.). It is not denied by the learned counsel for the petitioner that she had left the custody of Jaskaranpreet Singh with his grandparents.

It being so, it is not a case of illegal detention. Jaskaranpreet Singh is now settled in U.S.A. The present petition is frivolous and was filed stating wrong facts. As such, the same is dismissed.
