Date of Decision : 09.02.2017

M/s Parmod Kumar and Co.

....Petitioner

versus

CMD FCI and others

....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. J.S. Puri, Advocate, for the respondents.

M.M.S. BEDI, JUDGE (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the respondents has informed that the security amount of Rs. 2,55,000/- has already been returned to the petitioner in the year 2013.

The petitioner had filed the present writ petition in the year 2015. He had applied for refund of the security amount on December 21, 2007, whereas his extended contract period had expired on March 30, 2002.

No doubt, this Court can, in the exercise of powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, pass any order against any act which violates the fundamental rights or is violative of the rules of natural justice, but in the present case, there appears to be inordinate delay on the part of the petitioner to apply for refund of the security amount as also in filing of the present writ petition.

In view of the abovesaid circumstances, this petition is dismissed for delay and laches.
