C.M. No. 17862-CII of 2017

This misc. application has been filed for early hearing of the appeal.

For the reasons mentioned in the application, this misc. application is allowed and the main appeal is taken up for hearing.

FAO-M-176-2008

The appellant-husband has preferred the present appeal, aggrieved by the dismissal of his petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act seeking divorce from the respondent-wife, vide judgment dated 07.04.2008.

During the pendency of the appeal, the parties have entered into a settlement on 09.01.2017, which has been placed on record which indicates that before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court, the respondent-wife did not claim anything as alimony from the appellant-husband and they have mutually agreed that all the allegations against each other would be withdrawn. The parties will not claim anything from each other and will not enter into any litigation. The parties seek disposal of this appeal in the light of the settlement.

We have considered the facts and circumstances of the case and permit the settlement Ex. CX to be made part of the record and dispose of the appeal with liberty to the parties to claim any relief by moving the application under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act before the Court of competent jurisdiction as per the terms of the settlement Ex. CX.
