IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.11854 of 2017

Date of Decision : 26.05.2017

Mandeep Sood

..... Petitioner

Versus

U.T. Chandigarh and another

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. Saurabh Dalal, Advocate for the petitioner.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

By this petition the petitioner is seeking job on compassionate basis in place of his father who died in harness in the year 1996. Learned counsel states that at that time the petitioner was only 3 years old. He further points out that this is a very hard case because the petitioner has one elder mentally challenged brother and a younger sister. Further on the death of their father their mother abandoned them and they have been brought up at the mercy of the members of the father's family. However, the learned counsel has fairly accepted that at the relevant time the job was offered to the mother of the petitioner but she had not accepted the same since she wanted to leave.

In the wake of these averments, the only conclusion can be drawn is that the petitioner and other siblings were abandoned by their mother and really she is the one who has to blame for the present predicament. In Union of India and others vs. Sima Banerjee, passed in Civil Appeal No.251 of 2017, decided on 10.01.2017 the Supreme Court has clearly observed that the it would not be legal to give a job after so many years because the family has been able to survive.

In this view of the matter, the petition is dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Civil Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
