

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No. 12263 of 2017
Decided on : 16.08.2017

M/s Brar Roadlines

. . . Petitioner

Versus

Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited and others

. . . Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR MITTAL
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

PRESENT: Mr. Vikram Singh, Advocate and Mr. Sunnet Singh Deol, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Raman Sharma, Advocate for the respondents.

AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has approached this Court under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution for setting aside the letter/order dated 17th May, 2017 (appended as Annexure P-10), vide which the tender allotted to the petitioner had been cancelled. A further prayer has also been made for directing the respondents to allot the work to 5 vehicles of the petitioner being fully eligible and work for 7 vehicle is lying vacant.

2. After hearing learned counsel for the parties, perusing the averments made in the petition, we find that the impugned letter/order Annexure P-10 does not contain any reasons recorded by the respondents and it also does not satisfy the requirements of principle of natural justice. Accordingly, we find Annexure P-10 is legally untenable and is, thus, set aside. It is clarified that it shall be open to respondent No.4 to pass a fresh speaking order after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner, in accordance with the law, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner did not raise any objection to the same.

4. In view of the above, the present writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
