The Labour Court vide award dated 16.1.2012 granted the following relief:

“For the reasons recorded above, the respondents are directed to reinstate the petitioner into service with immediate effect. However, she is not entitled to any other relief including the relief of back wages as she did not work during the intervening period. The reference is answered accordingly.”

This award was challenged by the petitioner by way of present writ petition. Learned counsel for the petitioner after getting instructions from Mr. Randhir Singh, Assistant stated that respondent was reinstated by the petitioner vide its order dated 28.3.2012 and the respondent joined pursuant to that order on 9.4.2012. He states that the workman is still in service. Learned counsel for the petitioner further states that since the respondent was reinstated by the Department more than five years back, this writ petition be dismissed as not pressed.

It is ordered accordingly.

Copy of the order be supplied/sent to learned counsel/parties.
