The grievance of the petitioners is that the application filed by them under Section 3-H of the National Highways Act, 1956 regarding apportionment of compensation has not been dealt with. The matter has not been sent to the civil court.

In the reply, specific stand has been taken by the Collector-cum-competent authority that the dispute has been referred to the Civil Court vide communication dated 9.9.2015 and the matter is pending before the Court.

Considering the aforesaid stand taken by the respondents, the prayer made in the petition has been rendered infructuous. The petitioners may pursue the matter, which has been referred to the court.

The petition stands disposed of.
