SURYA KANT, J.

The petitioner alleges himself to be a '1984 riot victim'. The Deputy Commissioner, Rupnagar is said to have issued 'Red Card' on 02.07.2014 to the family of the petitioner in which his name also figures. The petitioner alleges that regardless of the policies framed by State of Punjab including dated 03.11.2008 (Annexure P-2) and various other policies framed by Central Government, which were duly considered by one of us (Surya Kant, J.) in the judgment dated 14.09.2010 rendered in CWP No.16345 of 2009 (Kuljit Singh and others vs State of Punjab and another), no commercial or residential immovable property has been allotted to the petitioner or his family members under these policies. The petitioner, accordingly, seeks a direction for the allotment.

[2] Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and taking into consideration his categoric stand taken that no benefit in the shape of allotment of immovable property has been extended to the petitioner or his family members despite they having been accepted as the '1984 riot victims', we dispose of this writ petition with a direction to the Deputy Commissioner, SAS Nagar, Mohali to ascertain the facts and if it is found that the above-stated claim made by the petitioner is correct, let necessary instructions be issued to GMADA or any other State Agency for allotment of a residential apartment to the petitioner/ or his family member in accordance with the policies. The appropriate decision be taken within four months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.
