AJAY TEWARI, J.(Oral)

This petition has been filed by the petitioner for quashing the impugned orders dated 17.12.2014 issued by respondent No. 4 whereby the petitioner was discharged from service under Rule 12.21 of Punjab Police Rules 1934.

The petitioner joined as constable on 04.04.2012 and was discharged from service by respondent No. 4 on 17.12.2014. As per the discharge order the petitioner was unlikely to prove an efficient police officer. As per the petition, first the petitioner and then his mother had fallen sick and under treatment from 20.08.2014 to 30.11.2014 and that was the reason why he was unable to attend to his duties. However, the written statement points out a different story. A chart has been given whereby the various periods of absence of the petitioner has been mentioned. As per the same with effect from 04.08.2012 till the date of discharge from service he had been absent for 174 days. It was for that reason that he was discharged from service under Rule 12.21 of Punjab

Police Rules 1934 during his period of probation.

In view of the facts mentioned above I find no reason to interfere. Petition stands dismissed.
