..... PETITIONER

VERSUS

The State of Punjab and others

..... RESPONDENTS

...

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASPAL SINGH

...

PRESENT: - Mr. R.K. Chopra, Sr. Advocate with Ms. Gagandeep Kaur, Advocate for the petitioner.

JASPAL SINGH, J

By virtue of instant writ petition preferred under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought issuance of a writ, direction or order especially in the nature of mandamus, directing the respondents that the pension, gratuity and all other pensionary benefits be released to the petitioner by treating 20.05.1985 being the deemed date of appointment as the petitioner has already been granted all the benefits such as notional fixation of pay etc. w.e.f. 20.05.1985 in pursuance to the judgment rendered by this Court in CWP No. 3539 of 1993 decided on 11.02.2014 (Annexure P-2) with further direction to grant all the consequential benefits of arrears etc. with interest for which the petitioner is legally entitled

At the very outset of arguments, it has been emerged that prior to the filing of instant writ petition petitioner has neither made representation to respondent No.2 nor to respondent No. 5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that petitioner would be satisfied in case instant petition is treated as a representation and be sent to respondents No.2 and 5, to decide the grouse ventilated in it within a specified period.

The instant petition is disposed of with direction to respondents No.2 and 5, to look into the grievances unfolded by the petitioner in this writ petition, which has been treated as a representation on his behalf take an appropriate decision in accordance with law within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this judgment.

However, if the petitioner still feels aggrieved of any order passed by the afore-said authorities, he shall be at liberty to approach this Court.
