DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Learned State counsel has filed a short affidavit, wherein it has been mentioned that service book of the petitioner is being reconstructed and it would be completed within a period of four months.

Learned State counsel also undertakes to release all benefits within a period of five months, as the service book will be reconstructed within a period of four months and thereafter it will take minimum one month in granting all the benefits.

In view of submissions made by learned State counsel, a period of five months in total is given not only for reconstruction of service book but also for releasing all the benefits.

In view of the said undertaking given by learned State counsel, the writ petition stands disposed of accordingly.
