Versus

The Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Ambala and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE P.B. BAJANTHRI

Present: Mr. Mayank Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

P.B. BAJANTHRI, J. (ORAL)

In the present writ petition, petitioner has questioned award dated 10.09.2013 (Annexure P1). Petitioner is stated to have been appointed on ad hoc basis with respondents in the month of January, 2001 and his services were stated to have been dispensed in the year 2003. Petitioner is stated to have raised a demand notice only in the year 2008. Thus, there is a delay in raising dispute as well as seeking reference which has been taken note of by the Labour Court and rejected. Further in filing the present petition, there is delay of 4 years. Having regard to the conduct of the petitioner that he is not pursuing his right within the reasonable period, petitioner has not made out a case so as to interfere with the award passed by the Labour Court dated 10.09.2013 (Annexure P1).

Accordingly, CWP stands dismissed on the ground of delay and laches.
