

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.16084 of 2017

Date of Decision: July 25, 2017

Const. Rajesh Kumar and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present:- Mr. Jasbir Mor, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Amol Rattan Singh, J. (Oral)

The grievance of the petitioners is that, being on the waiting list for the 2015 batch of the Lower School Course, they are not being sent to attend the course in terms of the instructions of the Director General of Police, Haryana, Annexure P-7, dated 06.02.2017, by which eventually it had been directed that a special batch be conducted in respect of those on the waiting list for the 2014-15 course (to the extent of 20% seats earlier reserved for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Caste category), w.e.f. 01.03.2017, at the Haryana Police Academy, Madhuban.

The course already having started almost 5 months ago, the petitioners can have absolutely no right to be deputed to the said course after approaching this Court at this time, i.e. 5 months later, the whole course itself being of 9 months. Even if it is of a slighter longer duration, it would make no difference, almost 5 months having already gone by.

However, as regards the petitioners' right to have been sent, along with those of the 2014 batch who were to be deputed to the Lower School Course for any unfilled seats of the 20% quota, which has been now decided to be filled up by the general category candidates (subject to the outcome of CWP no.11073 of 2015), the Inspector General of Police/competent authority, would consider the petitioners' grievance and pass a speaking order within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, and if their grievance is found to be correct, they would be deputed to the next available course, with their seniority to be fixed as per the date on which their right first accrued.
