.....Respondents

Surya Kant, J. (Oral)

The petitioner was elected as President of Municipal Council, Loharu, District Bhiwani. A 'no confidence motion' has been passed against her in the meeting held on 05.10.2016, removing her from the said office. The aggrieved petitioner has approached this Court contending, inter-alia, that no prior notice of 15 days was issued for convening the meeting of Municipal Council under the Act/Rules and thus the proceedings dated 05.10.2016 are vitiated in law.

We would have gone into the petitioner's above-stated legal plea but for the fact that the time is running out of her hands. The tenure of the elected Municipal Council is admittedly near to expire and fresh elections of Municipal Council, Loharu are required to be held in August, 2017. No effective relief thus can be granted to the petitioner at this stage. While keeping the question of law open, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent-authorities to hold the election of Municipal Council, Loharu within the stipulated period.

Ordered accordingly.

Dasti.
