CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE G.S.SANDHAWALIA

Present: Mr. Ashwani Verma, Advocate for the petitioner.

G.S.SANDHAWALIA, J. (Oral)

Challenge is to the order dated 6.11.2017 (Annexure P/2) whereby petitioner's services as JBT Teacher (Guest Faculty) were dispensed with on account of lodging criminal proceedings.

The only argument which has been raised now is that the petitioner has been acquitted on 3.8.2013 (Annexure P/5). A period of more than four years even has gone after that. The petitioner was working only as Guest Faculty and there is no legal right as such which accrued to her. More than a decade has passed since her service had been dispensed with. Various new policies of the Government have come in the meantime regarding the appointment of Guest Faculty. A Division Bench in Civil Writ Petition No.6090 of 2010- Tilak Raj Vs. State of Haryana and others decided on 30.3.2011 had issued various directions which were upheld by the Apex Court that the Guest Teachers are not to be accommodated because it is leading to the dilution of the education standard.

In such circumstances, there is no vested legal right of the petitioner infringed in spite of the fact that the petitioner might have been acquitted of the criminal proceedings.

Accordingly, finding no merit in the present writ petition, the same is dismissed in limine.
