JASPAL SINGH, J (ORAL)

By virtue of instant petition preferred under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has sought issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing respondent No.3 to release service and retiral benefits of the petitioner forthwith, including leave encashment and gratuity from 22.07.1982 to the year 1992. Further, to release entire service and retiral benefits to the petitioner from 22.07.1994 to 30.06.2012 i.e. from the date of absorption to the date of retirement on attaining the age of superannuation as the same have been withheld by the respondent No.2 as well as to conclude the entire proceedings of charge-sheets etc. against the petitioner.

2. At the very outset of the arguments, it has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that though the prayer with regard to the release of retiral benefits has been made in the petition but at this stage, he only restricts his prayer to the effect that respondent No.2 be directed to decide the disciplinary proceedings/enquiries, if any, pending against the petitioner, within stipulated period.

3. The instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to conclude the inquiry/inquiries, if any, pending against the petitioner positively within a period of 4 months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

4. However, after the conclusion of those inquiries, the petitioner shall be at liberty to approach this Court.
