Through the instant petition preferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought issuance of writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to grant dual family pension in the kind of second civil pension to the petitioner on account of the civil service rendered as Chowkidar (Group-D) by her husband under respondent No.4 from 04.12.1996 till his death on 07.01.2011 while in service; in terms of the letter/notification dated 23.06.2016 (Annexure P-9) issued by respondent No.1 with effect from the date the death of the husband of the petitioner on 07.01.2011 during Civil Service under respondents No.1, 3 and 4 and to pay the arrears along with interest @ 12% per annum.

At the very outset of the arguments, it has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the benefit of dual family pension claimed through the instant petition has already been granted to the petitioner, by the respondents and as such, the instant petition has rendered infructuous.

Dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
