KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is stated to have joined the services with respondent-department on 6.1.1976 and resigned from service on 24.5.1989, after having served for little over 13 years. Now, in the year 2016, he has filed the present writ petition, claiming pension and pensionary benefits.

The present writ petition is filed after a delay of about 27 years. In view of delay and latches, this Court is not inclined to entertain the present writ petition. The petitioner is relegated to avail the civil remedy before the civil court.

Disposed of.
