Petitioner has sought a writ in the nature of mandamus to provide electric connection in the premises of the petitioner bearing account no. R 75 SF 20040. According to learned counsel, same has been disconnected illegally and arbitrarily. According to him, in light of order dated 06.02.2015, he has already deposited ₹30,000/- with the respondents.

Petition is disposed of with the direction that respondent no. 2 shall consider the matter afresh and pass a speaking order within two months from today. Till then electric connection on the premises of the petitioner shall not be disconnected.

Petitioner would be at liberty to pray for refund of ₹30,000/- subject to decision taken by the authorities.
