The petitioner has approached this Court apparently due to village politics. He alleges that Sarpanch of the Gram Panchayat has allowed felling of trees from the Gram Panchayat land and sold the same without seeking prior permission from the Competent Authority, for his personal gain.

For this, the petitioner has got remedy to file criminal or civil proceedings against the Sarpanch before the Court of competent jurisdiction. He may also alternatively approach the Deputy Commissioner concerned, who shall look into his grievances.

With liberty aforementioned, the writ petition stands disposed of.
