The husband-appellant had filed a petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act for dissolution of marriage with Veena respondent which was dismissed by the lower Court on 07.01.2010.

Aggrieved by the said order, the present appeal had been preferred in the year 2010.

Matter was referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Center of Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh. On account of parties having not arrived at any amicable settlement, the Mediation and Conciliation Center had referred the matter back to the Court in the year 2013.

Matter has been listed for disposal of the appeal on merits.

Learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that he has been informed by the trial Court counsel that the parties have amicably resolved the dispute and are residing together. He has also submitted that pursuant to the directions passed by this Court, a sum of Rs.10,000/- was to be paid in the shape of bank draft to the wife which has not even been collected by the respondent. The bank draft dated 19.03.2011 has been placed on record.

In view of said circumstances, this petition is disposed of as having rendered infructuous without prejudice to the right of the appellant to revive the same within a period of one year, in case there is any controversy regarding the facts disclosed by counsel for the appellant.
