The petitioner got admission in Ph.D. Law Course on 22.03.2016 in the respondent-University. He is also working as Assistant Professor on contract basis in the Law Institute of the University. The University discontinued his Ph.D. Course and refused him to appear in the examination on the ground that he being in service as Assistant Professor was ineligible for admission. This Court on 23.12.2016 passed an interim order permitting the petitioner to sit provisionally in the examination.

Pursuant to the order dated 14.09.2017, result of the petitioner has been produced in sealed cover which has been opened and after perusal returned to learned counsel for the University. As the petitioner has qualified Paper-1 and Paper-2 with a reasonable good grading, he stands qualified for registration as Ph.D. Student. He will not be required to attend the classes also after registration as a Ph.D. Student. The University is thus directed to do the needful. Let the petitioner be registered as Ph.D. Student in accordance with the University Regulations.

The writ petition stands disposed of.
