THE MD UHBVNL & ORS

.....RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASPAL SINGH

Present: Mr. Pankaj Maini, Advocate for the petitioner.

JASPAL SINGH, J (ORAL)

By virtue of instant petition preferred under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to count his service w.e.f. June 1982 till February 1996 for the purposes of pensionary benefits, as well as, to grant him the benefit of 2nd and 3rd ACP on completion of 20 and 30 years of service, in view of judgment rendered by this Court in CWP No. 16883 of 2010 (P-9) whereby, similarly situated employees has already been granted the same benefit and also to grant interest @ 9% per annum.

2. At the very outset, it has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that no representation or legal notice was served upon the respondents prior to the filing of instant petition. Thus, it can be very well said that respondents did not apply their mind to the grievances which have been unfolded in the instant petition.

3. Accordingly, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to petitioner to prefer a detailed representation to the respondents unfolding his grievances, if any within 15 days from today, which shall be dealt with and disposed of by the respondents in accordance with law, service rules and instructions issued by Government from time to time, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of representation.

4. However, in case petitioner still feels aggrieved by any order of the afore-said authorities, he shall be at liberty to approach this Court.
