

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP-25693-2017

Date of decision: 13.11.2017

Samir Thukral & anr.

... Petitioners

VS

State of Haryana & ors.

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr. Aashish Chopra, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Ashok Muthreja, DAG, Haryana.

Mr. Amandeep S. Talwar, Advocate for respondent No.2.

Rakesh Kumar Jain, J.(Oral)

This petition is filed for seeking a direction to respondent No.2 to decide the application dated 06.11.2017 jointly filed by the petitioners asking for transplantation of liver under the provisions of The Transplantation of Human Organs and Tissues Act, 1994 and the relevant Rules.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has prayed for a reasonable time to decide the application.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to take decision on the application filed jointly by petitioners No.1 & 2 as early as possible, preferably within a period of one week but not later than two weeks in any case. It is needless to mention that the petitioners would also cooperate with respondent No.2 in order to arrive at a decision.

Copy of this order be given dasti to the counsel for the parties under the signatures of the Bench Secretary.

13.11.2017
sonia

(Rakesh Kumar Jain)
Judge

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------|
| 1. Whether speaking/non-speaking? | Yes |
| 2. Whether reportable? | Yes/No |