The petition was filed in this court in October, 2015, which was returned with the objections and thereafter completed and re-filed in March, 2016.

The case was listed for the first time in court on 1.4.2016, when it was adjourned on the request of learned counsel for the petitioners to enable him to produce certain documents on record. It was clarified that pendency of the writ petition was not to affect the rights of the respondents to proceed under the SARFAESI Act, 2002. Thereafter, despite number of adjournments, needful was not done.

On 8.8.2016, the case was adjourned sine die and was directed to be listed only after certified copies of the annexures were filed. Still, needful was not done. The case was listed on 21.3.2017 and since then is being adjourned on the request of counsel for the petitioners to do the needful.

We do not find any reason to grant further opportunity to the petitioners to do the needful. Apparently, they are not interested in pursuing the matter.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed for non-prosecution.
