SURYA KANT, J. (Oral)

(1) The instant application moved by the petitioner seeks to amend the writ petition.

(2) In our considered view, keeping in view the subsequent events, it would be appropriate if the petitioner files a fresh petition on the same cause of action as also on the basis of subsequent events.

(3) The applications are dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh petition on the same cause of action and also keeping in view the subsequent events, within one month and till such time, no third party right shall be created.

(4) With liberty afore-mentioned, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
