S. J. VAZIFDAR, C. J. (ORAL)

The petitioner has challenged the issuance of the fresh tender. The petitioner states that pursuant to the earlier tender process, the work had been allotted to him. However, there is no letter of allotment. No contract has been produced before us. In these circumstances, it is difficult to see how the fresh tender process can be challenged.

2. The petition is, therefore, dismissed.

3. If the petitioner has any further information, he is always at liberty to file a fresh petition.
