

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.5875 of 2017

Date of Decision.22.03.2017

The Manwala Lok Sewak Co-op L&C Society Ltd.Petitioner

Vs

State of Punjab and othersRespondents

Present: Mr. Rajesh Kumar Girdhar, Advocate for the petitioner.

CORAM:HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

-.-

AMIT RAWAL J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he will be satisfied if a direction is issued to the 4th respondent-The Executive Engineer, Bathinda Canal Division, Bathinda to consider the legal notice dated 21.02.2017 (Annexure P-3) within a stipulated period.

With regard to maintainability of the writ petition, the petitioner relies upon judgment rendered by coordinate bench of this Court in M/s Ludhiana Builders Vs. State of Punjab and others in CWP No.14356 of 2012 on 21.12.2015 wherein placing reliance upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court, it has been held that it is no longer res integra that contractual disputes involving public law element are amenable to writ jurisdiction and since the respondents, who are instrumentality of State, acted in contravention of Article 14 of the Constitution of India, the writ Court can issue suitable directions to set right the arbitrary actions of the respondents.

Without going into the merits and demerits of the claim of the petitioner, I deem it appropriate to direct 4th respondent-The Executive Engineer, Bathinda Canal Division, Bathinda to consider the legal notice dated 21.02.2017 (Annexure P-3) within a period two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order and shall pass a speaking order thereon. If the claim of the petitioner is found justified, the payment shall be released to the petitioner within a period of two weeks thereafter.

The writ petition stands disposed of with the above direction.
