Rakesh Kumar Jain, J. (Oral)

After a brief hearing, it transpired that 10 seats reserved for the NRI category have not yet been filled up, therefore, those will be filled up with the candidates of general category in the 2nd counselling. It is also not disputed that the candidates who had foregone their seats in the 1st counselling can compete for those seats which are left over, in the general category, in the 2nd counselling. Therefore, the petitioner has a right to appear in the 2nd counselling for the seats which are left over in the general category including the seats of NRI category which are to be converted into general category.

With these observations, the present petition is disposed of.
