

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.8999 of 2017
Date of Decision.01.05.2017

Daljit KaurPetitioner

Vs

The State of Punjab and othersRespondents

Present: Mr. Harit Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

CORAM:HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

-.-

AMIT RAWAL J.(ORAL)

The petitioner has remedy to approach the Secretary, Department of Local Government under Section 236 of the Punjab Municipal Act.

Mr. Harit Sharma, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, during the course of the hearing, has pointed out certain flaws in the acceptance of non confidence motion on the premise that the petitioner had never been served with the notice of the aforementioned meeting of no confidence.

Be that as it may. The petitioner shall be at liberty to take all the points before the aforementioned authority in case such appeal is filed along with the interim application. The Secretary, Local Department shall decide the application for interim stay within one week.

The writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms.

(AMIT RAWAL)
JUDGE

May 01, 2017
Pankaj*

Whether speaking/reasoned Yes

Whether reportable No