CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M. JEYAPPAUL

for the appellant.

FAO-M No.424 of 2015

Both the parties were present today. They suffered individual statements in second motion. They reiterated their stand taken during the first motion. They have been living separately for the past four years. They are not in a position to live together as husband and wife. Therefore, they have mutually agreed that the marriage should be dissolved.

We are of the view that averments found in the joint petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, are true, therefore, a decree of divorce by mutual consent as prayed, is granted.

Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of. Decree sheet be drawn accordingly.

CMM No.173 of 2015

As the main appeal has been disposed of today, the application filed under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act has become infructuous. The same stands disposed of accordingly.
