Counsel for the appellant states that he has contacted the two LR's of the appellant and the fact of the matter is that the appellant had even been declared as a forma pauperis and this appeal was filed in forma pauperis after the same had been certified by the Collector. He further states that since the LR's had not inherited from the late appellant this appeal has been rendered infructuous and the same may be dismissed as such.

Counsel for the respondents has accepted this fact.

Appeal is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
