Learned counsel for appellants after arguing at length state that they may be permitted to withdraw the instant appeal with liberty to approach the State Government to grant some other alternate land in view of the earlier allotment made in their favour which seemingly stands frustrated on account of the fact that this land stood alienated in favour of the present respondents in the year 1958 and thus protected from the surplus area proceedings.

In view of above prayer made by the learned counsel for the appellants, instant appeal is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid granted.
