MAHESH GROVER, J.(ORAL)

The instant appeal is directed against an order which is an interim order passed on 2.9.2016. We have noticed that the matter has progressed considerably before the learned Single Judge and therefore there is no reason to interfere with this order when other orders are not questioned or impugned by the appellants. Apart from this even if the appeal was to be considered we are of the opinion that it is absolutely frivolous as the appellants would have sufficient opportunity to plead its case for variation of the order before the learned Single Judge. Finding no infirmity or reason to interfere with the impugned order we dismiss the instant appeal. Besides the appeal is also barred by inordinate delay of 78 days which we do not intend to condone in the absence of any satisfactory explanation.
