.....Petitioner

Versus

Ramesh Kumar and others

....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE LISA GILL

Present: None.

LISA GILL, J.

This revision petition was adjourned sine die on 14.01.2013 as none appeared on behalf of the petitioner on various occasions. It is to be noted that notice of motion has not been issued in this case. This revision petition is also barred by limitation (82 days). This petition was initially directed to be listed for hearing with Criminal Revision Nos. 75 and 77 of 2011. However, on the statement of learned counsel for the petitioner, it was segregated from the said revision petitions on 26.04.2012. Thereafter, the matter was adjourned once on request of learned counsel for the petitioner and thereafter there was no representation on behalf of the petitioner on numerous occasions. It was ultimately adjourned sine die on 14.01.2013. The petitioner has not come forward for listing of this case.

This matter was put up before this Court on 25.01.2017 by the Registry. It was adjourned for 15.02.2017 and it was directed that counsel for the petitioner be notified of the date fixed in this case.

Despite the learned counsel for the petitioner being notified of the date fixed, none appeared on behalf of the petitioner on 15.02.2017. In the interest of justice, notice was issued to the petitioner herself for 25.04.2017 to show cause as to why this petition be not dismissed for non-prosecution.

As per office report, notice issued to the petitioner has been received back unserved due to incomplete address. The service report reveals that the petitioner could not be traced at the address given in the memo of parties. A perusal of the file reveals that no address other than the one in the memo of parties is available.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, this petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.
